The Daily Courant.

Tuesday, May 8 1722.

Moscow, April 3.

'ON the 30th of the last Month, their 'Czarish Majesties appeared in Pub-'lick at Prince Menzikoff's Assembly, 'which gave an Opportunity to the Imperial, Prussian, and Dutch Ministers to congratulate them on their Return from Olonitz. M. Campredon, the French Minister, has been indisposed for some Days past; he is said to be in great Esteem at the Czar's Court. The Turkish Aga who arrived here lately with M. Deschof has had two Audiences of the Czar, and is shewn such extraordinary Honours by the Russian Ministry that the foreign Ministers are not a little jealous on that Account. The best of the Czar's Troops are in Motion towards the Frontiers of Poland and Germany. Notwithstanding it has lately been so generally expected that the Czar would have declared his Successour as soon as his Subjects had all of them taken and subscribed the Oath required of them, 'tis now said, that upon the pressing Instances made by Count Kinski the Imperial Minister in Favour of the young Prince Son of the late Czarowitz, the Nomination will be only made in the Czar's Will which is to be deposited among the Crown Records till the Czar's Decease. The Weather having thawed for some Days past has rendred the Roads so bad there is no stirring abroad in Sledges, nor otherwise, but very slowly in Wheel-Carriages. A Publick Assembly was held Yesterday at Prince Ramadonosky's House: The Week ensuing is to be spent in Devotion.

Copenhagen, May 5. 'A fresh Recruit of 500 Seamen is newly arrived here; upon which, a Resolution is taken to augment with four Men of War the Fleet that is now fitting out here. All the Land and Sea Officers are ordered to be at their respective Stations against a certain limited Time, under Penalty of being cashier'd. The King is not expected at Sleswick till the 18th Instant. Count de Guldenstein has sent his Secretary M. Syling, to Malmoe in Schonen, to acquaint his Daughter, who is newly married to the young Marquess de Montelcone, that she will undoubtedly possess the 100000 Florins of Holland, which she is entitled to, but as to any further Pretensions, he will take such Measures, that she shall have no more Hopes of inheriting any Estate by him: The Marquess has lately confirmed his Marriage, by having the Church Rites repeated by a Popish Priest: It is said, the Swedes will not permit this Couple to leave the Kingdom, unless the young Marquess first performs his Promise, in settling a Fund for his own and the Lady's Subsistence in that Kingdom.

Vienna, April 29. Cardinal d'Althan is appointed Viceroy of Naples, and the Marquess d'Almanara is appointed Viceroy of Sicily. Count Colloredo, Governour of Milan, is expected shortly at this Court, to be invested with the Order of the Golden Fleece, and to be conferr'd with concerning the present Posture of Affairs in Italy. The Emperour has ordered to have the City of Orbitello, and other Imperial Places on the Tuscan Coast to be well fortified. It is said, that the Government of Transilvania, lately vacant by the Death of Count Virmont, will be given to Count Konigseck, and that M. de Gall is to be made Vice-President of the Aulick Council of the Empire, in the Room of the Count de Sinzendorff, who died of an Apoplexy on the 27th Instant, in the 71st Year of his Age.

Francfort, May 6. M. de Reeb, Minister from the Evangelical Body to the Elector Palatine, is returned to Heidelberg. The Imperial and French Troops are in Motion in Alsace.

Hague, May 12. 'The Squadron designed for 'the Mediterranean against the Algerines will in 'a few Days be ready for sailing; the three Convoy Ships which usually go from Amsterdam 'about this Time every Year to the Streights, 'have Orders to join this Squadron, as Occasion shall require. Advice was received here 'Yesterday, that the Prince of Bavaria, Bishop of 'Munster, was elected to the Archbishoprick of 'Cologne on the 9th Instant, and accordingly this 'Particular was notified some Hours after to the 'States General, by his Minister here. M. de Hogendorp, Receiver General, was at the Instances of 'the Council of State, charged some Days ago by 'the Fiscal Advocate, with having appropriated 'and employed to his own private Use certain Sums 'belonging to the Publick Treasury. The States 'being determined to change their several Garrisons, the Troops are every where in Motion, except in the Province of Groninguen, which is desirous of continuing some of the Regiments at present there, not having yet issued all the Subsistance due to those Corps, and till that is done, will in the mean Time subsist them upon Credit. The 'Prince of Holstein Beck, Governour of Ipres, having desired Leave of the States to go to Aix la 'Chapelle, M. de Lecq, Deputy Governour of that 'Place, who has been here for some Months past, 'is ordered to go thither and Command during the 'Absence of the Prince.
